

Resolution

Honoring David S. Loshin, OD, PhD, as he retires from the ASCO Board of Directors and as Dean of Nova Southeastern University College of Optometry

Whereas, Dr. David S. Loshin has been an outstanding leader in optometric education, the optometric profession, and vision science communities throughout his professional career spanning forty-five years; and

Whereas, Dr. Loshin's scholarly contributions in the areas of geometric and physical optics, lens and instrument design, and image quality include one text, several book chapters, technical reports, and peer reviewed works, many that are recognized internationally; and

Whereas, Optometric education and the profession have benefitted enormously from Dr. Loshin's leadership while serving on the ASCO Board of Directors from January 1996 to July 2020, including most notably his extensive service on the Residency Educators Special Interest Group where he served as chair or co-chair for twenty-four years, the International Optometric Education Committee, and two terms as Board President.; and

Whereas, Dr. Loshin served on the faculty and administration at the University of Houston College of Optometry from August 1977 to December 1995 and as dean and professor for two ASCO member institutions, The University of Missouri Saint Louis School of Optometry from January to December 1996 and Nova Southeastern University College of Optometry from December 1996 to August 2020; therefore be it

Resolved, that ASCO and its members earnestly thank Dr. Loshin for his collegiality, contributions to optometry, optometric education and ASCO; and be it further

Resolved, that the ASCO family extends its very best wishes to David upon his retirement with the sincere hope for much happiness and good health in the many years ahead.