GIVE YOUR BEST
A career in optometry gives you the opportunity to help others and make an impact each day — whether you’re helping a child get fitted for their first pair of glasses or detecting a disease.

LIVE YOUR BEST
• Give back to your community or those in need while making time to do the things you love.
• Work toward a salary you feel good about — the average salary for an optometrist is $168,000/year.
• Enjoy a strong work-life balance.

Here’s what it takes to become a Doctor of Optometry

1. Take prerequisite courses with a strong background in the sciences
2. Take the OAT, GRE, or other entrance exam if necessary for your program
3. Apply to one of the 24 optometry schools in the country
4. Complete your OD degree and fulfill requirements to acquire your license
5. Start working in optometry and enjoy your new career

Scan the QR code to learn more about what it takes to become an optometrist.
READY TO GET STARTED?

Start your optometry career at one of the 24 schools and colleges of optometry across the United States.

Get your career in optometry started by visiting: futureeyedoc.org

Here’s how it works:

1. Sign up at eyeopenersession.org
2. Match with an eye doctor based on factors like location, interests, and goals
3. Connect through a short, online convo or through an in-person shadow session

SIGN UP HERE or visit EyeOpenerSession.org

Being an optometrist gives me life