

Resolution

Honoring Michael J. Earley, OD, PhD, FAAO, upon his retirement as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of The Ohio State University College of Optometry

Whereas, Dr. Michael J. Earley has been an outstanding leader in the optometric profession with his remarkable roles as a prestigious optometric educator, an influential role model in optometric service, and a respected research investigator throughout his storied career; and

Whereas, the optometric education and profession have gained tremendously from Dr. Earley's expert leadership as the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and distinguished thirty-seven-year teaching career at The Ohio State University, his tireless commitment to optometric research in the Convergence Insufficiency Treatment Trial (CITT), Vision in Preschooler (VIP) Study Group, Pediatric Eye Disease Investigator Group (PEDIG) and research theses with innumerable vision science graduate students, as well as his energetic community service to AOA and VSP, in addition to his wise directorship and insight as member of the ASCO Chief Academic Officers Group;

Whereas, Dr. Earley's impactful and significant contributions to the field of research in vision science, physiological optics, pediatric vision, and color vision to the health of the citizens and communities of the United States and throughout the world is seen through his academic and scientific work; thus be it

Resolved, that ASCO and its members enthusiastically thank Dr. Earley for his indefatigable contributions to optometry, optometric education, optometric research and ASCO; and be it further

Resolved, that the ASCO family extends its very warmest wishes to Michael upon his retirement with the sincere hope for long-lasting happiness and good health in the many years ahead.